DAY 1 KLIA Departure

DAY 2 Arrive Nice-Eze

Arrive at Nice airport and start your dream journey. Eze is a small village known as the "eagle's nest village" due to its method of building houses on cliffs that resembles the way eagles build their nests. The town was built in 550 BC and is one of the oldest and most beautiful mountain towns on the French Riviera. Here, visitors will explore the must-see attraction of Eze - the exotic garden in the sky - and enjoy the breath-taking coastal views from the mountains.

DAY 3 Saint Paul de Vence - Monaco - Nice

Saint-Paul de Vence is a medieval village situated on a hill in the French Riviera, which has retained its original charm over time. Since 1920, it has become a creative sanctuary for artists. The entire town is full of thriving art galleries, and the cobblestone streets are the most romantic walking alleys.

Next travel to the world-famous gambling destination, Monaco. Visit the Monaco Cathedral - resting place of Monaco's kings and late Princess Grace. Continue to the Royal Palace Plaza, where you can see the scenery of the Côte d'Azur.

Nice is arguably the most beautiful city in France, with a beautiful and clear blue sea, blue sky, with typical southern European orange house elements. Visitors can enjoy leisure and comfortable Mediterranean-style atmosphere.

DAY 4 Gorges du Verdon - Valensole

The Gorges du Verdon is one of the most beautiful canyon in Europe. The Verdon River flows from the Alps in an "S" shape through this 700-meter-deep gorge, which stretches for tens of kilometres, making it one of the most amazing mountain scenes in Provence. It is a paradise on earth for all who visit it.

Valensole is one of the six regions in southern France where lavender is grown. Many of the local residents are lavender families who make their living growing lavender and extracting lavender oil. The most extensive lavender fields in Provence are in bloom from mid-June to late July, making it a must-see for those who enjoy spectacular lavender views.

DAY 5 Aix en Provence-Les Baux de Provence Les carrières de lumières

Aix-en-Provence, the former capital of Provence, is a medieval city with boulevards, fountains and magnificent houses, the most "metropolitan" area of Provence. It has been the cultural, economic and intellectual centre of Provence since the 12th century and the home of the talented painter Paul Cézanne.

Les Baux, perched on a limestone cliff 245 meters high, is an exquisite mountain town in Provence. Built in 950 A.D., the entire town was carved entirely out of stone and still retains its medieval style. The town's church, hospital, town hall and stores are all centuries old.

Next visit Les Carrières de Lumières, which is an "immersive digital art experience" art centre. The exhibition has not only caused an international sensation, but also started a global trend of immersive digital art.

DAY 6 Abbaye de Senanque-Gordes-Roussillon

"The Abbey of Sénanque is hidden in a peaceful valley and is also the setting of the story in the book 'A Year in Provence.' It is known as one of the most beautiful valleys in all of France, and is featured in most postcards. The monks of the abbey personally plant lavender on the land in front of the abbey every year, which attracts a constant stream of visitors.

Gordes is a French village, also known as the "City in the Sky". The houses in the village are built using stones, and are located on top of the entire mountain, which is known as the most beautiful village in France. Gordes is also famous for being the setting of the movie "A Good Year".

The red mountain town of Roussillon, named after the colourful mineral pigments produced in the region has become a fairy-tale tourist destination. As you walk through the narrow alleys of the village, you can see the small houses along the roadside painted in different beautiful colours, with the medieval walls that surround them, against the pure turquoise blue sky and white clouds of Provence, it is like a dreamy watercolour painting.

DAY 7 Pont du gard-Arles

The Pont du Gard is one of the must-see tourist attractions in the south of France, where visitors from all over the world come every year to admire this architectural gem of Roman civilization. It is the largest surviving ancient Roman aqueduct in the world. The local people play water rafting here, and it is also a place suitable for vacation, boating, swimming, catching fish etc.

Arles, a city in the south of France in the Rhône region, is home to the ruins of ancient Rome, a United Nations-listed World Heritage Site. Arles was also a city where the painter Vincent Van Gogh lived for nearly 15 months before being driven to a sanatorium in Saint-Rémy by the Arles residents. During his time in Arles, Van Gogh created over 300 paintings, including "Café Terrace at Night", "The Bedroom in Arles", and "Starry Night Over the Rhône".

DAY 8 Avignon-Lyon

Avignon, once the Roman Catholic capital, is famous for its annual art festivals. Each month Avignon hosts a different art event, and the city is full of art galleries, elegant fashion stores, antique stores, and markets with local products.

Lyon, which is the third largest city in France, is full of art and culture. The old town is full of beautiful historical buildings: the Roman theatre, churches, astronomical clocks, etc. Strolling through the streets, you will often encounter large painted murals, which are full of surprises. The Lyon Old Town, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is a popular destination for tourists, with its vibrant universities, shopping centres, old markets, and cobblestoned streets.

DAY 9 Geneva - Geneva airport

Geneva has many of the "best of all worlds": the mildest climate, the largest lake in terms of area and the largest volume of water in Central Europe, Lake Geneva (also known as Lac Léman). Its famous attractions includes the Flower Clock, the Museum of Art and History, the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Museum, and the Palais des Nations (the European headquarters of the United Nations).

Geneva's Old Town is also a unique tourist attraction, where you can stroll and shop in the narrow streets. The most striking landmark of the city is a fountain in Lake Geneva with a 140 meter high water column that can be seen from many parts of the city. A cruise on the the romantic and beautiful Lake Léman will be arranged during the visit.

In the evening depart for Geneva airport to check in.
