NAIVASHA - MAASAI MARA

After breakfast, depart for Maasai Mara National Reserve, one of East Africa's most famous wildlife sanctuaries and one of the largest wildlife reserves in the world. Here, you can track wild animals and experience the primal charm of the African wilderness. Upon arrival in the afternoon, enjoy lunch, then embark on an exploration of the park. Over 1,500 square kilometres, Maasai Mara is home to thousands of animals, particularly famous for the "Big Five" (lion, leopard, rhinoceros, elephant, and buffalo). In the evening, check into your accommodation within the park, enjoying a unique experience of being one with nature.

MAASAI MARA

After breakfast, depart for the Mara River. This river is home to Nile crocodiles and hippos and is a vital lifeline for many wild mammals. Between July and August each year, the world's most spectacular natural phenomenon, the "Mara River Crossing," takes place here. Over a million wildebeest and zebras form massive migration herds and risk their lives crossing the Mara River during this time. The waters surge intensively, hiding lurking Nile crocodiles while fierce survival battles unfold. Thousands of animals face the challenge posed by nature, creating a magnificent and awe-inspiring scene that showcases the harshness and beauty of the wild. It is one of the most poignant life stories of the African savannah.
