ANTALYA - SIDE - ANTALYA *SECOND NIGHT OVERNIGHT

Perge Ancient City reflects the classical elegance of Greek architecture, with ruins of stadiums, aqueducts, and bathhouses revealing the passage of time. Each broken stone and shattered column tells the story of cultural shifts. In Side, the enduring remains of the Temple of Apollo and Temple of Athena are framed by the Mediterranean landscape, adding romance to the ruins. Enjoy lunch at a seaside restaurant, with the salty breeze and views of the deep blue sea, white columns, and clear sky, creating a picturesque and immersive experience.

ANTALYA - ASPENDOS - KONYA

Aspendos, home to an ancient Roman theater that once held over 12,000 spectators, is remarkably well-preserved and still hosts musical performances today. Nearby, the Roman aqueduct bridge, though in ruins, stands as a testament to past grandeur. Konya, the birthplace of the Whirling Dervishes, is known for the Mevlana Mosque, a serene space with a turquoise dome and white walls. Once a royal rose garden, the mosque offers a peaceful atmosphere for reflection and a deep dive into Sufi cultural heritage.
