Morocco's iconic Tagine is slow-cooked in a traditional clay pot, allowing steam to circulate naturally and lock in rich flavours. Prepared with chicken, lamb, or beef, and infused with saffron, cinnamon, cumin, preserved lemons, olives, and dried fruits, it delivers the signature sweet-and-savory taste of North African cuisine.

Asilah

Couscous

Asilah Couscous is delicately steamed over a fragrant stew, allowing every grain to absorb its rich flavours. Traditionally served with seven vegetables, chicken, or lamb, Asilah's coastal version is elevated with fresh fish and seafood, blending Moroccan tradition with the flavours of the Atlantic.

Set along the Atlantic coast, Asilah is renowned for its freshly caught seafood. Savour prawns, squid, fish, and shellfish prepared over charcoal, pan-seared, or in traditional Moroccan style, while enjoying sweeping ocean views after exploring the town's charming blue-and-white streets.

Marrakech

Marrakech Tangia

Tangia, Marrakech's signature slow-cooked delicacy, is prepared by sealing beef or lamb with preserved lemons, saffron, and aromatic spices in a traditional clay pot. Slowly cooked for hours over charcoal embers, it delivers exceptionally tender meat with rich, melt-in-your-mouth flavours.

Chez Ali – One Thousand and One Nights Dinner Show is Marrakech's most iconic cultural spectacle. Indulge in an authentic five-course Moroccan feast while enjoying live tribal music and performances, before witnessing the legendary Fantasia horse show, where galloping riders, synchronized rifle salutes, acrobatics, and belly dancing create an unforgettable Arabian Nights experience.
