Local Food Highlight: Barcelona Seafood Paella

Paella de Marisco is a must-try local delicacy in Barcelona, loved by both tourists and locals. This iconic golden dish is packed with fresh mussels, clams, and squid, creating a rich, perfectly seasoned flavor that you won't forget.

Don't Miss: Be sure to scrape the "Socarrat"

The crispy, caramelized rice at the bottom of the pan. Its smoky crunch combined with the sweet seafood makes for an absolutely irresistible bite!

Segovia

Roast Suckling Pig

Local Food Highlight: Segovia Roast Suckling Pig
Cochinillo Asado is the most iconic traditional dish of the Castile region and a legendary culinary must-try in the ancient city of Segovia. Famous for its minimalist seasoning and astonishing texture, it features a glass-like crispy skin and incredibly tender meat.

Fun Fact: The pork is so remarkably tender that tradition dictates it can be sliced cleanly using only the edge of a porcelain plate!

Madrid

Spanish Tapas

Local Culture: The Art of Spanish Tapas

Tapas are an essential part of Spanish food culture, featuring a delightful variety of small dishes traditionally enjoyed before the main meal. Perfect as bar bites alongside drinks, they range from cold appetizers like cured meats and olives to hot delicacies like the famous garlic shrimp.

Travel Tip: While they started as light bite-sized snacks, tapas have evolved into a complete dining experience. Today, ordering a mix of different tapas is a fantastic way to enjoy a full, varied dinner!

Portuguese Seafood Rice

Cooked with premium shrimp, shellfish, and seasonal seafood in a rich ocean broth with local spices. It offers a sweet, flavorful, and fragrant taste of Portugal's classic maritime cuisine.

Portuguese Codfish Dish

Prepared with traditional Portuguese methods, this dish infuses tender cod with olive oil and aromatic herbs, creating a delicate, layered flavor of a century-old classic.

Portuguese Roast Chicken

Charcoal-grilled using authentic Portuguese techniques and seasoned with classic Piri-Piri chili sauce. Crispy outside and tender inside, it is a truly iconic national favorite.

Sagrada Família

INCLUDED
含八门票
TICKET

La Sagrada Família is the undisputed landmark of Barcelona and the ultimate masterpiece of legendary architect Antoni Gaudí, who dedicated 43 years of his life to it. Begun in 1882, this expiatory basilica is the only unfinished building in the world designated as a UNESCO World Heritage site. Often called a "symphony in stone," it stands as a breathtaking fusion of divine grandeur, religious devotion, and the beauty of natural laws.

Park Güell invites you to step into Antoni Gaudí's magical world of mosaics. As one of his most defining UNESCO World Heritage masterpieces, this site was originally planned as an upscale private residential estate, but has since evolved into an imaginative public art park. Here, Gaudí perfectly blended organic, nature-inspired concepts with colorful shattered-tile mosaics (Trencadís), creating a fairy-tale-like wonderland that sparks the imagination.

Sintra

Pena Palace

Pena Palace is one of the Seven Wonders of Portugal and a peak example of 19th-century European Romantic architecture. Perched high on the second-highest peak of the Sintra Mountains (Serra de Sintra), it is celebrated worldwide for its striking color-blocked red and yellow walls and dreamy, fairytale appearance. In 1995, it was inscribed as a UNESCO World Heritage site as the core piece of the Cultural Landscape of Sintra.

Óbidos

The Wedding Town

Óbidos invites you into the enchanting "White Wedding Town," one of Europe's best-preserved medieval gems. In 1282, the King of Portugal presented the entire town to his queen as a wedding gift, sparking a centuries-old tradition as a "Royal Dowry." Today, with its romantic whitewashed streets and frozen-in-time medieval atmosphere, this charming town stands as a dream destination for travelers worldwide.

Ronda is a spectacular cliffside town perched dramatically on towering rocks—the very city Ernest Hemingway called the perfect place for eloping. As one of Spain's oldest and most iconic destinations, it is split in two by the massive El Tajo Gorge, sitting high above a 100-meter vertical drop. The combination of its classic white Andalusian houses and the breathtaking canyon views creates a stunning landscape of ultimate romance and natural grandeur.

Córdoba Mosque-Cathedral: A Millennial Fusion
Discover Córdoba's masterpiece, famed for its iconic red-and-white double arches. Witness a rare architectural marvel where Islamic design seamlessly blends with Christian art. Entrance ticket is included to explore this historical sanctuary and experience its timeless interplay of light and shadow.

Spain

Montserrat

Montserrat mountain translates to "serrated mountain", a spiritual home and religious sanctuary for Catalans. Located in the northwestern mountain range of Barcelona, it is world-famous for its unique pink conglomerate rock formations and serrated peaks. Nestled within the range at an altitude of 720 meters, the Santa Maria de Montserrat Abbey is a miracle-filled Benedictine monastery founded in the 11th century.

Sant Joan Funicular

Spain

Flamenco Dinner

A flamenco dinner is a sensory feast that perfectly blends the passionate Gitano dance and music of Spain with authentic Iberian cuisine. Inscribed on the UNESCO Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity in 2010, it allows the audience to sit right by the wooden stage of a traditional tavern (Tablao). There, you can enjoy fine wine and delicious food while experiencing the deep, soulful rhythm of the dancers up close.
