Boro Boro Arctic Station

Set on the frozen shores of Lake Baikal, Boro-Boro Ice Station offers a refined Siberian dining experience featuring Arctic fish soup, hot-smoked Angara trout, sous vide Olkhon Island beef, and locally inspired delicacies, creating an unforgettable gourmet journey on the ice.

Olkhon Island

Cape Khoboy Ice Picnic

On the blue ice of Lake Baikal, enjoy a traditional Khoboy Cape picnic featuring freshly prepared Arctic fish soup, served with local vodka and rustic black bread for an authentic taste of Siberia in an unforgettable winter setting.

Olkhon Island

Russian Fish Soup Picnic

Prepared with fresh grayling and Angara River trout, Lake Baikal's signature Ukha is slow-cooked over an open fire, creating a rich broth with a subtle smoky aroma. This authentic Siberian classic is the perfect way to warm up while enjoying the breathtaking frozen wilderness.

Lake Baikal Museum

Snowmobile Ride

Experience the thrill of Lake Baikal by snowmobile, speeding across its vast frozen expanse and weaving through snow-covered birch forests. It's the ultimate way to explore the lake's breathtaking winter landscapes and hidden corners beyond the reach of ordinary vehicles.

Russion Culture & Military Expedition

Embark on an adrenaline-filled adventure aboard a retired Soviet military vehicle across the frozen wilderness, then experience the thrill of firing a live AK-47, feeling its powerful recoil in an unforgettable winter setting.

Lake Baikal Museum

Husky Sled

Glide across the snowy forests and frozen shores of Lake Baikal on a thrilling Siberian Husky sled ride, led by a team of 4–6 purebred huskies. After the ride, enjoy the chance to cuddle, feed, and capture unforgettable moments with these friendly Arctic companions.

Olkhon Island

Hovercraft

Travel across Lake Baikal aboard a hovercraft, effortlessly gliding over ice, snow, and frozen cracks to reach spectacular blue ice and crystal-clear bubble ice inaccessible by ordinary vehicles. Its heated enclosed cabin ensures a safe and comfortable journey through Siberia's breathtaking frozen wilderness.

Cape Khoboy

Baikal Kiss

Carve a shot glass from the crystal-clear ice and raise a toast with vodka or juice in true Siberian style. This unique ritual is a fun and unforgettable way to experience the magic of Lake Baikal's frozen wilderness.

Professional Drone Photography

Capture unforgettable moments on Lake Baikal with a professional drone photography session, where the breathtaking blue ice creates the perfect backdrop for stunning cinematic keepsakes.

Cape Khoboy

Ice Picnic

Dine on the frozen surface of Lake Baikal with a unique ice picnic, where crystal-clear blue ice becomes your table. Enjoy freshly prepared fish soup, Russian tea, local Salo, and vodka for an unforgettable taste of Siberia.

Olkhon Island

Traditional Folk Performance

Experience the warmth of Siberian hospitality with a traditional folk performance featuring accordion music, Cossack dances, local legends, and lively cultural interactions with the villagers on Olkhon Island.
